Affordable Living Fair Jan. 30

EVANSTON, IL – The City of Evanston along with CEDA and Nicor will be hosting an Affordable Living Fair on Saturday, January 30 at the Fleetwood-Jourdain Center located at 1655 Foster St. from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Evanston renters and homeowners will find weatherization tips, home improvement do-it-yourself demonstrations, cost-cutting solutions, healthy and affordable meal ideas, tax help, and home safety information at this FREE Affordable Living Fair.

Additionally, residents can learn about foreclosure prevention and assistance; home rehab financing; lead prevention; recycling; sidewalk repair; minor home repair assistance; safe pest control; LIHEAP and more.

CEDA will also be on hand to promote the Illinois Home Weatherization Assistance Program for income eligible residents. This program can help residents deal with high heating bills and drafty homes.

Some of the vendors that will be presenting at this fair are: Nicor, ComEd, CEDA (home weatherization program), Home Depot, Ace Hardware, Citys Rehab Program, LIFT-Evanston (tax and general services), Safer Pest Control, Rebuilding Together, Citys Handyman Program, Circuit Breaker Program (RX, licenses plate and tax program), Now Were Cookin, Midwest Energy Audits, Township Assessor (property tax exemptions), Charter One Bank, Fire Department (free CO2 and smoke detectors), Patke Accountants and Consultants (tax
